Summary

A naturally driven serving leader who does not shy away from tasks big or small. After spending years pursuing riches in the form of money I am now pursuing the spreading of personal wellbeing and providing a voice to the voiceless. Immigrated in November 2008 from Switzerland, I speak Swiss, English and German fluently, and French, Dutch and Indonesian at a basic level. I enjoy to be challenged and continuously learn to improve myself. I am passionate about nature, culture and people. #### DOCUMENTARY PRODUCER

Voice 4 Voiceless (V4V)

June 2018 - Ongoing

- Video production for corporate documentaries
- Clients include Mosaic @theCowshed (City of South Perth), the University of Western Australia, and Youth Futures Western Australia.
- Work in production: Indigenous land rights in Sabah (Malaysia), How Gestalt Therapy transforms psychology, Animal rights in Bali, The darkness behind street children in SE Asia.

My role mostly is as director/producer to gather the film crew, liaison and collaborate with clients, and create a storyline that is roughly followed with a focus on flexibility and value co-creation. I ensure that the camera crew understands the emotions we are trying to capture and the story that we are aiming to tell.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT

The University of Western Australia

December 2018 - Ongoing

- Report to the EQUIS team and work on getting reaccredited by EQUIS
- Administrative work predominantly to do with data processing and entry
- Collecting information and re-writing it to fit the report format
- Working closely together with the FABLE Planning team

My role is focused on preparing the EQUIS accreditation report. In doing so I work independently towards common milestones, in union with other team members. Clear communication is essential, attention to detail is a must.
